

Thematic Scientific Areas

1. Management of Educational Units – Management Functions
The Greek educational system - governing bodies
Public and private educational organizations: Comparative approaches in their administration
Educational Organizations as learning organizations
Introducing and managing change and innovation in school.
Educational Decisions: Levels, bodies and information utilization in decision making
Educational Planning – Educational Reform
School development
Management of Total Quality in education – Processes for safeguarding quality
Educational Leadership: Approaches, practices and consequences
Development of organizational competence (Capacity Building)
Organizational culture in educational organizations
Technology and Management Information Systems servicing the educational unit
2. Educational Organizations Environment
Educational governance
Management in educational organizations: International and European Environment
The internal and external environment of educational organizations: data, interactions, communication, (informal and formal) groups.
Administrative centralization – educational decentralization.
3. Human Resources Management
Human resources competence development. Teachers' and executives' self-sufficiency
Welcoming and supporting new teachers. Mentoring
Selection and support - professional development of education executives.
Instigation, motivation, professional satisfaction of human resources in education
Burnout in educational organizations
Human Resources development of horizontal and social skills in educational organizations